

I would like to ask that the FCC NOT change the current "Do Not Call" policy in the State of New Jersey. I have found that since I have signed up for this the number of telemarketers calling me has decreased dramatically.

In the past, I have found telemarketers to be annoying and bothersome.

Please keep the New Jersey law as is.